Announcing CEIA's Keynote Speaker

Jillian Kinzie, Ph.D. will deliver the conference keynote address on Monday, April 1, 2019.

CEIA is pleased to announce our distinguished keynote speaker, Jillian Kinzie, Ph.D. Jillian is Associate Director of the Indiana University Center for Postsecondary Research and the National Survey of Student Engagement (NSSE) Institute. She conducts research and leads project activities on effective use of student engagement data to improve educational quality, and serves as senior scholar with the National Institute for Learning Outcomes Assessment (NILOA) project.

Her research interests include assessment of college and university quality, first year student development, teaching and learning in college, equity and student success in college, high-impact practices, learning outcomes assessment, and women in underrepresented fields.

Jillian is co-author of Assessment in Student Affairs (2016), Using Evidence of Student Learning to Improve Higher Education (2015), Student Success in College (2005/2010), and One Size Does Not Fit All: Traditional and Innovative Models of Student Affairs Practice (2008/2014) and has published in many journals including the Journal of Higher Education, Journal of College Student Development, Liberal Education and New Directions for Teaching and Learning. She is co-editor of New Directions in Higher Education and serves on the boards of the Washington Internship Institute, and the Gardner Institute for Excellence in Undergraduate Education.

We look forward to welcoming Jillian at the CEIA Conference in Chicago.

Program Committee Update

The Conference Program Committee wishes to thank CEIA members for submitting presentation proposals. The committee reviewed nearly 100 submissions for the 56th Annual CEIA Conference. They are in the process of communicating decisions to proposal authors this week. At the Chicago conference, attendees will have the opportunity to learn and network through four session formats including the traditional Interactive Breakouts, Hot Topic Roundtable Discussions, Lightening Sessions/Pecha Kucha and Speed Sessions. Some of the sessions that have already been accepted and will be offered at the conference include:

- #MeToo: Student Interns' Need for Sexual Harassment Training
- Co-op Application Data and Trends: Information and Tips for Employers and Co-op/Internship Professionals
- Cooperative Education and an Increasingly Entrepreneurial Workforce: In Step?
- Do you hire for cultural fit, or diversity of thinking?

- Elevating Events as Experiential Learning Opportunities: A Case Study of Measuring Student Learning at Career Center Coordinated Events
- International Student Co-op Success
- Reaching for the Sky: How Digital Tools Enrich Experiential Learning
- Reducing the Social Capital Gap: Building an internship program for first-generation students
- Your Annual Report Process: Creating a Dynamic Tool for Departmental Goals and Accomplishments
- Using Annual Sponsorships to Increase Employer Engagement
- Wolfpack Styled: A Model for Helping College Students Access Professional Attire

A full list of session titles will be available on the CEIA conference website the week of January 7.

WACE Call for Proposals

WACE and the University of Cincinnati, the host for the 21st WACE World Conference, wish to announce this THIRD CALL FOR ABSTRACTS. The World Conference Planning Committee seeks abstracts that embrace the changing landscape of Cooperative & Work-Integrated Education (CWIE) by offering new opportunities for people to interact and present at a World Conference. Along with these new opportunities, we will continue with the WC program tradition of seeking presentations that highlight new and innovative work in the world of CWIE.

The University of Cincinnati, birthplace of co-operative education in 1906 and current home to an outstanding CWIE suite of programs, is excited to be the host for the 21st WACE World Conference. Consider joining us in this modern, cosmopolitan city for a unique learning experience that will showcase CWIE along with the many social and cultural offerings of the city and region.

Third Call for Abstracts

The World Conference Planning Committee wishes to remind you that the Call for Abstracts is currently underway and encourages you to submit an abstract to present at the 21st World Conference.

February 15, 2019 is the deadline for refereed paper abstracts and May 15, 2019 for all other abstracts. There are 10 presentation categories to choose from. Please use this direct link to access the information and abstract submission form:

2019 CEIA Membership Renewals

A friendly reminder to renew your CEIA membership. New for 2019, CEIA is pleased to offer 5 tiers for your memberships. The Individual Membership and Organizational Membership for up to 3 people will remain the same, however we have added new options for Organizational Memberships for 4-6 people, 7-9 people, and 10 plus. Please consider encouraging others in your office to join the association. Your CEIA membership places you in a community of professionals whose focus is the integration of education with real-life work experience. Membership ensures that you are informed of professional development resources such as:

- CEIA's Annual Conference
- Experience Magazine
- Leadership/Personal Development Opportunities
- Recognition & Awards
- Archived Journal of Cooperative Education and Internships
- CEIA's Website, Blog, and Social Media Groups
- Online Membership Directory
- Program Networks
- Quarterly News Brief

To renew or join CEIA, click the link: <http://www.ceiainc.org/join/member-benefits/>. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click on New/Renew Membership. Or, if you have your current invoice, simply click on "VIEW INVOICE ONLINE" to pay with a MasterCard, Visa, Discover, or Amex.
