

News Brief: April 2020

Experience Magazine™ : Practice + Theory + Podcast

The publication has shifted from twice-per-year issue releases to a platform with content being updated every few weeks.

At this time, we are looking for several types of submissions, particularly those pertaining to how Experiential Learning and Career Education is addressing COVID-19:

- Academic Article or Practitioner Piece
- Podcast Interview
- Video Submission
- Image Submission
- Event Notification or Institutional Highlight
- Development/Networking Opportunity
- Virtual Discussion Proposal

We want to encourage CEIA members to submit something. Submission ideas can be long, short, in-between. They can also be a discussion topic or a podcast idea ... or even an image/infographic of something!

Please consider contributing to this resource and encourage your networks to do the same: https://experiencemag.org/submit to experience magazine/

CEIA's Virtually in San Diego is a Great Success!

Virtually in San Diego had a total of 2,900 different registrations for the 14 sessions offered as webinars. Approximately 900 colleagues were able to enjoy this professional development offering. All sessions have been recorded and are in the process of being uploaded along with PDFs of power points (that presenters allow) in the Members Only area, Past Webinars.
