

News Brief: December 2020

Season's Greetings CEIA Members!

Virtual Conference for 2021

CEIA Announcement - Virtual Conference for 2021

Due to the continuing Pandemic, CEIA has made the decision to move the Annual Conference to a virtual format. The Conference Committee and Board of Directors are working hard to create a full experience delivered virtually for your professional development needs. Please save the date! The CEIA Virtual Conference will be held April 19 - 21, 2021. The Pre-Conference Academy Training will also be held virtually on April 16, 2021. We hope that you will be able to participate in all the great programming being planned for CEIA members.

Call for Proposals has been extended!

We received many wonderful presentation submissions, but we also know many of you might be interested in submitting for the Virtual Conference. With this in mind, the Call for Proposals has been extended. The deadline is December 14, 2020. If you submitted a presentation proposal for the Tampa Conference, there is no need for you to re-submit. Your submission will be considered for the Virtual Conference.

InternQube Professional Skills for the Workplace

Want to help your interns - virtual and in-person? InternQube Professional Skills for the Workplace is a book which highlights the core competencies students need to succeed in today's workplace, whether virtual or in-person. It is written in a nuts and bolts, executive summary style. Like the utility of a Swiss knife, this book also includes questions for reflection in multiple subject areas. And there are more resources on the companion website - InternQube.com.
