

CEIA Remembers David Rowe

It is with a heavy heart that we announce the passing of Dave Rowe on August 29, 2022. He was a pioneering advocate for cooperative education dating back to the 1970's while working in Human Resources at A. C. Spark Plug, a division of General Motors Corp. Rowe was a huge supporter of General Motors Institute (presently Kettering University) even before it became an independent educational institute in 1982. He later worked with GM corporate recruiting and HR at Delphi Corporation.
